

Institutional Distinctiveness

‘Distinctiveness’ refers to those activities, qualities and accomplishments that enable an institution to enjoy a unique identity or an academic reputation for which it is known, admired and valued.

Samadhan college has established its distinctive approach towards its comprehensive vision in the form of service to the society by organising Chetna Vikas Mulya Shiksha workshop to make the students and all understand the human reality in existence and with the prime focus on discovering the inherent co-existence and harmony at all levels of existence. Value based education of ours along with regular curriculum aims at training the students to face the outer world with the right attitude.
